Historic Salem Cross Inn

with Luncheon Show
and Oakwood Farm Christmas
Barn

Tuesday, November 15, 2022

1705, the Inn retains an extensive collection of American antiques, 200-year-old portraits and tools. Its enormous fieldstone fireplace, fine furnishings and hand-hewed chestnut ceiling beams create a warm and inviting atmosphere. Stroll through this historical Inn which was maintained by the White family (Mayflower decedents) for eight generations until the structure was acquired, restored and furnished by the Salem family a quarter-century ago. On display are hundreds of portraits, furnishings, tools, housewares and ephemera from the Colonial and Federal periods.

We'll experience the excellent traditional New England fare that has made this Inn famous. Appetites will awaken as the aroma of freshly baked breads permeate the air. Our menu includes:

- ✧ Delicious Homemade Soup ✧ Melt-in-your-mouth Homemade Rolls
- ✧ Fresh Vegetables ✧ Fresh Potatoes
- ✧ Choice of: Old Fashioned Chicken Pie on a Buttermilk Biscuit
OR Honey Dijon Maple Salmon
- ✧ Pecan Custard Bread Pudding

Ragtime pianist Gary provides the entertainment. His act features a lively, uplifting performance including audience participation. It will prove to be an afternoon filled with lots of fun, laughter and song.

We'll complete our day with a stop at Oakwood Farm Christmas Barn. Unpretentious on the outside, the barn contains an amazing array of Christmas and all-occasion items within the many rooms of this 150-year old structure. Congenial staff members await with refreshments on arrival along with a small gift for each guest.
